Dear President Reagan:

I am sending you many letters expressing concern for Raoul Wallenberg. They were signed by people who attended New Jersey's Ethnic Festival, and the names of the signers reflect the diversity which characterizes New Jersey and the great country in which we live.

Most of the people who signed live in New Jersey, but people from Massachusetts, Rhode Island, New York, Pennsylvania, Washington, D.C., Maryland, Florida, Ohio, Illinois, California, Ireland, Sweden, and the Federal Republic of Germany have also signed.

I thank you again for everything which you have done for Raoul Wallenberg, and I pray for his speedy release.

Sincerely yours,

Kathy Goodkin
